Summary:

The following is a summary of incident related by the complainants and not verbatim. Unknown offenders knocked on the complainant's door announced office as "Police" upon entry punched [REDACTED] about the face and body. The accused then ordered the complainants to secure their dog and began to search the residence. During the incident [REDACTED] was bound with plastic type flex cuffs and face covered and [REDACTED] handcuffed. One of the accused then attempted to remove [REDACTED] pants and groped her breasts. The accused were wearing a described Kevlar type vest one of which had "Police" stenciled on the vest. One of the accused had a large flashlight and belts similarly worn by Police Officers. The accused then proceeded to search the residence and opened a safe which contained collector coins and other various valuables after threatening [REDACTED] with further bodily harm if he did not provide the combination to the safe located in the bedroom. The complainants remained handcuffed and twist tied as the accused exited the residence with several proceeds removed from the residence.
